

FEI Jumping Steward General

The FEI Jumping Steward General is proposed to the FEI by their NF and is responsible for the stewarding at international events within their NF. Prior to their appointment as FEI General Steward they must be a Level 2 Steward. In addition they are required to report to the FEI Regional Steward General to make suggestions for improvement relating to stewarding matters.

The duties of a Steward General are to:

- Act as the contact person between their NF and the FEI Regional Steward General and if necessary directly with the FEI Honorary Steward General in matters relating to their discipline's stewarding;
- Advise their NF on all matters relating to their responsibility;
- Be familiar with the organisation of an international event;
- Have a good knowledge of veterinary matters plus FEI Veterinary Regulations (VRs) and the FEI legal system;
- Speak and write English fluently;
- The Steward General must inform the OCs of international events in their country of their responsibilities relating to stewarding and stable security under their jurisdiction.

Within smaller NFs, one Steward General may act as Steward General for a number of disciplines providing that they are qualified in the disciplines for which they have been appointed.

The Steward General must arrange for Level 1 and 2 steward courses to be organised within their NF for persons to be appointed to Steward Levels 1, 2 and 3.
