Inspection Panel Summary;

This stallion has an attractive head and conforms to the Irish Draught breed type despite being somewhat light of bone. He is slightly offset on the near fore and slightly camped out. Killinick Bouncer displays a good walk, with a long stride, and an average trot. He is very athletic, quick off the ground and shows good bascule over the fence. He was supple and careful while jumping and demonstrated an excellent attitude and great scope for an Irish Draught Horse.
