

Cruising 1985 – 2014

The McCann family and Hartwell Stud are sad to announce the death of their Show Jumping Stallion Cruising on Sunday the 7th September 2014 at the age of 29.

Cruising will be remembered by his many fans both here and abroad for his show jumping performances and also by the many breeders world wide for the legacy he has left through his sons and daughters.

Cruising was an amazing character and was fit and well up to his final day. He passed away peacefully in the stable he was born in and is buried at Hartwell Stud.
