

ISH STUDBOOK YOUNG HORSE EVENTING CHAMPIONSHIP

The ISH Studbook Young Horse Eventing Championship will take place at the Ballindenisk International Horse Trials, Co. Cork, on Saturday 17th and Sunday 18th September 2016. The aim of the Championship is to identify, evaluate and reward owners of young horses that are capable of performing at the highest level in international eventing.

Eligibility

- All 4, 5 and 6 year old horses registered in the Irish Horse Register with the breed codes ISH, RID or ID, and with sire and dam documented on their passport, are eligible to compete.
- Weatherbys Thoroughbred mares and stallions which have met the IHR inspection criteria are also eligible to compete.
- Any stallion which has commenced the HSI Stallion Inspection procedure and has been awarded 'Preliminary Approved' classification is also eligible to compete.
- To check if your horse is eligible to compete please contact Antonette Doran in Horse Sport Ireland (tel 045854508 or email adoran@horsesportireland.ie)
- In addition, there will be a class for 5 and 6 year old ponies registered in an Approved Studbook.
- As per Eventing Ireland Rules, a pony may also be ridden by an adult of a suitable size in this competition.
- All riders and horses must be registered with Eventing Ireland and must have gained qualifications as a combination.
- One clear completion at a higher level will be accepted as a qualification (ie: one E1100 clear XC will count with a clear E190 for the E190 class).
