PREAMBLE

Just Sport Ireland (“JSI”) was established by the Federation of Irish Sport, with support from the Irish Sports Council, to provide an independent specialised dispute resolution facility for Ireland’s sporting community.

The overall objective of JSI is to provide a cost effective and time efficient mechanism for resolving sports disputes whilst also seeking to protect the privacy and confidentiality of the parties. JSI will deal with any dispute that arises in a sporting context save for anti-doping issues which, are dealt with in accordance with the Irish Sport Council’s Anti-Doping Regulations as amended from time to time.

In keeping with the overall objectives of JSI, these Rules aim to be as user-friendly as possible. JSI is designed so that its facility can be used by parties to a dispute without the need for legal representation. Parties may however choose to use legal representation but should note that as a general rule Parties will be required to cover the costs of their own legal representation regardless of the outcome of a dispute.

It is envisaged that arbitration with JSI will be concluded no later than 8 weeks from when initiated. Mediation should take no longer than 4 weeks.

Part 1 of these Rules summarises the main provisions relating to the governance and administration of Just Sport Ireland as provided for in the Memorandum & Articles of Association (M&A). The idea is to provide JSI users with detail around the governance of JSI without the need to review the M&A in detail. The M&A is however available to download on the website or on request from the JSI Secretariat.

Part 2 of these Rules set out the procedures relating to arbitration whilst, Part 3 set out the powers and procedures of the Arbitration Panel. Part 4 of these Rules details the mediation procedures whilst Part 5 sets out JSI’s Referral Facilities for use by sports bodies wishing to identify suitably qualified personnel to sit on their internal disciplinary and complaints committees, inquiries or investigations. Part 6 sets out general rules that apply to all JSI proceedings.

The JSI Secretariat is there to provide guidance to Parties on these Rules and the process and procedures of JSI generally. Feedback on these Rules and/or on the services provided by JSI is welcome at all times and should be submitted to the JSI Secretariat.
