Athletes must comply with this request. Athletes must notify the Jumping High-Performance Director of any change in their horse's health status or of any veterinary issues when they first become apparent.
- 4.2 The Jumping High Performance Director and/or Horse Sport Ireland can send the Team Veterinarian and/or an appointed Veterinarian to take a blood and/or urine sample from a horse at any time, for the purposes of testing for prohibited substances, and/or as part of an assessment of the horse's well-being.
- 4.3 Athletes (at their own expense), shall make available, upon the request of the Team Veterinarian, the veterinary records of horses being considered for nomination. In addition, athletes, (at their own expense), shall be responsible for supplying any follow-up diagnostic information requested by the Team Veterinarian for horses being considered for nomination.
- 4.4 Each athlete will be required to keep a logbook for their horses in which they must record all products and treatments used on or given to their horse from 31st April 2020 until the completion of the 2020 Olympic Games. The Team Veterinarian must be provided this Logbook before the nomination date and at regular intervals post nomination. The Logbook must be submitted with a signed declaration.
- 4.5 Athletes should note that horses nominated for the Olympic Games will be subjected to FEI Pre-Arrival Testing (PAT). The PAT service will be available from 1st June 2020 for full screening, thereafter for elective screening until [insert date]. The Jumping High-Performance Director reserves the right to select horses for PAT. The Team Veterinarian can submit samples that will be tested for substances listed on the FEI Equine Prohibited Substances List. Samples are to be sent to the FEI Central Laboratory, LGC in Newmarket. The results will be disclosed to the Jumping High-Performance Director & Team Veterinarian.

Section 5 - Specific Nomination Criteria

Core Objective:

This nomination policy combines both competition and general criteria in order for the Jumping High-Performance Director to select the IRL Jumping Team to compete at the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo. The Jumping High-Performance Director's primary objective is to nominate the appropriate 'mix of combinations' to give Ireland the best chance of a podium finish at the 2020 Olympic Games.

5.1 In assessing the performances of Combinations, the JHPD will consider the following competition & general measures:

(A) Competition Measures

- i. Present form of the horse and athlete up to the date of Nomination;
- ii. The JHPD will primarily consider performance of combinations in the following events in 2020:
  - a. FEI Top Level CSIO5* Nations Cups including but not limited to
    - o Deerridge Palm Beach 12-16 February 2020
    - o Wellington, USA
    - o La Baule, FRA
    - o Rome, ITA
    - o Langley, CAN
    - o Aachen, GER
    - o St. Gallen, SUI
    - o Rotterdam, NED
  - iii. The JHPD will consider the performances of combinations during the Winter Equestrian Festival, USA any other relevant tours in Europe in 2020.
  - iv. The performance of combinations in CSI5* & CSIO5* Grand Prix's in 2019 and 2020.
  - v. The performance of combinations in CSIO5* Nations Cups in 2019.
  - vi. The performances of combinations in CSI5* events in 2019 & 2020.
  - vii. Past performance (s) of the horse and athlete, separately, or as a combination.

(B) General Considerations

- i. The soundness of the horse to meet the challenges of competing and travelling to the 2020 Olympic Games will be a significant factor in any nomination decision. Athletes must keep the Team Veterinarian fully briefed on any health or soundness issues the horse may have both historically and throughout the season.
- ii. The ability of the horse to travel by Airfreight to Japan uneventfully.
- iii. Athletes are required to disclose any illness or injury (however minor) to the JHPD and Team Veterinarian. Where it becomes apparent that a nominated horse is unsound or unfit to travel or that there was a non-disclosure relating to soundness, the JHPD reserves the right to remove that combination from nomination and selection with immediate effect.
- iv. The health and fitness of the athlete to meet the challenges of competing and travelling to the 2020 Olympic Games will be a factor in any nomination decision.
- v. Further consideration will be given to the following general measures:

- a. The suitability of the Combination with regard to the likely characteristics of the arenas in Tokyo, Japan and for the unexpected conditions of the Tokyo Olympic Games (taking into account the objective of the team competition);
- b. the ability of the Athlete and his/her support personnel to operate and perform in an Olympic environment which is highly regulated and pressurised;
- c. the ability of the Athlete and/or support team to contribute towards an effective team and winning orientated environment;
- d. the overall composition of the team;
- e. the ability and experience of the Combination to compete successfully at the highest level of international competition;
- f. demonstrated experience and/ or success at Championship level;
- g. the ability, or potential ability, of a Horse and/or Athlete to perform under the stress and pressure of an Olympic Games;
- h. the ability of the Athlete to prepare their Horse to peak condition for a major campaign, such as the Olympic Games;
- i. consistency of performance and the likelihood of a suitable performance to contribute towards a team medal outcome;
- j. exceptional ability of a Combination (and the potential to achieve a podium finish) may be a consideration and may, in the JHPD's sole discretion, place a Combination with less experience or consistency ahead of another Combination
- k. degree of commitment to the Horse Sport Ireland High Performance (HP) Programme.

Section 6 – Force Majeure

- 6.1 In considering the performances of athletes at events or other attendances in line with this policy, the JHPD may, at his discretion, give weight to extenuating circumstances.
- 6.2 For the purposes of section 6.1 above, extenuating circumstances means an inability to compete, or perform, or contribute at an optimum level arising from:
  - i. Injury or illness;
  - ii. Bereavement or personal misfortune, and/or;
  - iii. Any other factors reasonably considered by the JHPD to constitute extenuating circumstances;
- 6.3 Athletes unable to compete at events other attendances must advise the JHPD by email of this fact and the reasons thereof as soon as practicable after the extenuating circumstances arise.

Section 8 - Reserves (P Athletes)

- 8.1 In the event a nominated or selected Horse is removed due to the reasons outlined in Section 7 above, the EHPD in conjunction with the OFI reserves the right to retain the nominated/selected athlete that had been nominated/selected with the removed horse but substitute the horse with another horse campaigned by that athlete, provided same is included on the relevant long list for the Olympic Games. The EHPD reserves the right to elect this mechanism ahead of deferring to the P Athlete/Horse list in the first instance.

- 8.2 In the event an Athlete and Horse as a combination, or separately, is removed due to reasons outlined in Section 7 above, and the EHPD does not wish to utilise section 8.1 above or 8.1 is not applicable, the EHPD reserves the right to nominate any other Athlete/Horse Combinations listed on the long list. For the avoidance of doubt, the P Athlete/Horse (Alternate) does not automatically move up to a Team place subsequent to nomination or selection unless expressly decided upon by the EHPD. Please see the FEI Regulations for Equestrian Events at the Olympic Games 24th Edition, Effective for the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020.

Section 9 - Disclaimers

- 9.1 These procedures are based on FEI General Regulations, FEI Regulations for Equestrian Events at the Olympic Games, applicable FEI Sport Rules and the 2020 OFI Agreement for Selection of the Athletes for the Sport – Equestrian, as presently known and understood. The selection criteria are based on the latest information available to HSI. However, the selections are always subject to unforeseen, intervening circumstances, and may not have accounted for every possible contingency.
- 9.2 As such, this nomination policy can be amended at any time by Horse Sport Ireland. Horse Sport Ireland reserves the right to amend or change the Policy where necessary at any time in order to fulfil the objective of the Policy. In the event that Horse Sport Ireland is of the opinion that such an amendment is necessary as a result of any change in any of the above stated rules, regulations and agreements, to give effect to the policy following discovery of a drafting error or oversight or for any other reason determined to be in the best interests of Horse Sport Ireland, Horse Sport Ireland shall not be responsible or liable in any way to anyone as a result of any such amendment.

Section 10 - Appeals

- 10.1 Please see Horse Sport Ireland Appeal Procedure for the Tokyo Olympic Games (all Disciplines).
