The following are some of the responsibilities of the venues selected to host a class for the HSI Foal Championships:

- Promoting the class
- Taking entries for the class
- Providing HSI with a complete list of entries two weeks prior to the class
- Holding the class in an arena with a suitable surface (suitable indoor arena with cage facilities and footing)
- Providing a steward for the class to assist with the call up of competitors and to ensure that all animals are led into and out of the ring
- Ensuring adequate health and safety measures are in place for the class
- Providing a commentator/announcer for the class
- Providing a photographer for the class
- Venues should ensure that their own insurers are aware they are holding the classes and should supply HSI with confirmation that they have suitable cover in place with an appropriate limit of indemnity (approx. EUR 6,500,000) and that their policy includes a Principals Clause.

The factors listed below will be taken into consideration when selecting venues for the 2022 Foal Championship:

- *Suitable date and location.
- Established shows with suitable facilities to cater for loose movement demonstration.
- Avoidance of clashes with other shows.
- On-site facilities for participants and spectators.

*Note that there will be 5 regional qualifiers. The final will be held at a centrally located venue. Qualifiers will be held in August/September and the final will take place in September/October.
